

Oilseed Rape Nutrition

Top up your

Why?

- Potassium supports yield, quality and profitability of Oilseed Rape
- Oilseed rape requires more potash throughout the growing season – up to 300kg/ha
- Maintaining Potassium can reduce:
 - Fungal diseases by up to 70%
 - Bacterial diseases by up to 69%
 - Insects and mites by up to 63%
 - Viruses by up to 41%
- On some soil types soil applied Potassium is insufficiently available. Foliar sprays are an essential supplement

	N	P	K
3T/HA OILSEED RAPE SEED REMOVES	120	55	61
AVERAGE APPLICATION	177	57	67

Potassium Deficiency

Our Solution...

K Express

- 50% K₂O complexed with EDTA for effective assimilation, plus 3% ureic N
- High Concentration water dispersible granules- less water to transport
- Potassium carbonate for effective assimilation by the plant
- Compatible with most pesticides and insecticides

Apply 3-4kg/ha every 2-3 weeks during seed formation

www.sipcamuk.co.uk